A nationally recognized trial attorney with more than 45 years of experience, Robert L. Parks is a highly respected advocate in the courtroom and a leader in the community. He focuses his practice on mass tort, aviation, wrongful death, resort litigation and product liability cases representing plaintiffs in airline disasters in the Americas and around the world. As a dedicated trial attorney, Parks is committed to providing personal attention and professional services to every client. Parks successfully advocates for people who have suffered a serious loss through the negligence and fault of others. The average amount of the firm's verdicts and settlements generally exceeds $1 million. Parks has earned the distinction from his peers as a 'Top Lawyer' in South Florida Legal Guide every year since 2003, and he is a leader in the South Florida community, heading efforts for nearly 20 years to restore the Miami River as its chairman and serving on the Everglades Foundation. Parks recently received the 2011 War Horse Award from the Southern Trial Lawyers Association for his outstanding reputation, leadership, dedication and achievement in the legal profession for the past 30 years.
